Dear Parents and Friends

Kia Ora Katoa

DROP OFF ZONE SUPERVISION

More parents are needed to assist with this roster in the afternoon from 2.50–3.10pm. If you can assist for one day per fortnight, please ring Barrie. Thank you.

TRANSPORT TO EVENTS

We have noticed a steady decline in the number of parents who are able to transport students to sports and cultural events. It costs $200 for a bus to Pukekohe and return. This can become rather expensive for parents when small numbers are participating. We are also required to follow the passenger loading limits for the bus. We will ask for parent support first, and if we have insufficient offers, we will resort to buses.

CASINO EVENING

Thank you to all of those who have supported this event. Organisation is in place to ensure it is an enjoyable evening.

Security Patrol: we would like to have someone for vehicle security on the night. If you can help ring Barrie 236 1012.

FRANKLIN NETBALL

Yr 7 & 8 Tuesday 4 August Pukekohe Netball Centre

Yr 4-6 Wednesday 5 August Pukekohe Netball Centre

We will be travelling by bus as large numbers of children are involved.

ENROLLING FOR PUKEKOHE HIGH SCHOOL IN 2009

MATHS OPEN MORNING 9AM - 10AM TUESDAY 11 AUGUST

All classes will be open for parents to come in and observe a maths lesson. Please be aware that teachers will be fully engaged in teaching groups, so in most cases will be unable to answer any parent questions.

A bell will ring at 10 am to signal the end of the open morning. If parents have any questions or queries, Mrs McDougall will be in the library at 10.10 am to answer these. Thank you we look forward to having you join us during maths week. Susan McDougall

Please remember to use phone number 236 1012 when contacting the school. Thank you
