CALF CLUB WEBSITE

In 2003 LIC (Livestock Improvement Corporation) launched a free website, www.calfclub.co.nz, giving rural schools and children an easy to follow guide on selection, care and training of pets for Calf Club. The three aspects are:

- an easy to follow guide on selection, care and training
- a dairy to download to record progress
- a section for schools to complete (Lorraine does this)

BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEETING 26 JULY 2010

Senior Managers reported to the BOT on the progress of all students in relation to our school targets and the National Standards at June 2010. The board will publish a summary of this achievement in its Board Newsletter later this month. The board also had a 2 hour training session to assist them to fully understand their trustee role.

TROY STORY

Congratulations to everyone in the Middle School Syndicate (Rooms 10,11,12,13), students, teachers and parents for putting on such a wonderful production. We could not undertake these kind of events without the support of everyone. The final performance is tonight @ 7.00pm.

CHICKENS FOR CALF CLUB

The date for the chickens to arrive has changed from 20 August to Wednesday 18 August. Please alter your calf club calendar accordingly.

A NOTE FROM MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY - BOW TIE APPEAL

Thank you very much for all you've done to support Muscular Dystrophy Northern with the 2010 Bowtie campaign. We have raised over $8,500 to date which is just fantastic, a result we wouldn't have got without the hard work and commitment of our members and volunteers. This money will be used to support the work of our 3 Fieldworkers, as they travel throughout our region providing information and support to our 500+ members and their families.

GARDEN PROJECTS FOR CALF CLUB Amanda Van Dalen from Red Fire Nurseries will be speaking to those people who are doing a garden for Calf Club on Monday at 10am. Written instructions will be distributed at this time.
